PRELUDE

"Who You Say I Am"

Who am I that the highest King
Would welcome me
I was lost but He brought me in
Oh His love for me
Oh His love for me

Chorus 1

*Who the Son sets free
Oh is free indeed
I'm a child of God
Yes I am*

Free at last
He has ransomed me
His grace runs deep
While I was a slave to sin
Jesus died for me
Yes He died for me

Chorus 2

*In my Father's house
There's a place for me
I'm a child of God
Yes I am*

I am chosen not forsaken
I am who You say I am
You are for me not against me
I am who You say I am
(Oh) (Yes) I am who You say I am

CCLI Song # 7102401

SCRIPTURE

Luke 24:13-16; 28-43

Peter Vincent

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER WE DIE? (QUOTES & NOTES)

"There are two ways to be fooled. One is to believe what isn't true; the other is to refuse to believe what is true."

"but someone will ask, 'How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?'... 'What you sow does not come to life unless it dies... So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable.. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.'"

I Corinthians 15 (selected verses)

The New Testament proclaims not just the eternal life of the soul, but the resurrection of the body. There is a physicality to the resurrected life, that the Greco-Roman world failed to see....

The Judeo-Christian understanding in the Bible sees each human as a complete whole. Somehow, in some mystical transformation – after earthly death, you remain a complete unified package. A total being, that is personality and body all together.

"...after his resurrection Christ did not go back to his previous earthly life, as we are told Lazarus did. (see John 11). Rather Jesus rose again to definitive life, which is no longer governed by the chemical and biological laws and therefore stands outside the possibility of death, in the eternity conferred by love." Pope Benedict XVI (2005-2013)

"Jesus resurrection is the beginning of God's new project, not to snatch people away from earth to heaven but to colonize earth with the life of heaven...."

N.T. Wright (English scholar & bishop)

"The most important thing in your life, is not what you do; it's who you become. That's what you will take into eternity.

You are an unceasing spiritual being with an eternal destiny in God's great universe." Dallas Willard, Prof of Philosophy.

So What do Christians believe happens after we die?...

"Guesses, of course, only guesses. If they are not true, something better will be." C.S. Lewis, British writer and scholar
