Give rest unto your servants with your saints, O God.
Where there is neither pain nor sorrow, neither sighing, but life everlasting.
For you, God only are immortal; the creator and the maker of us all,
And we are mortal formed of the earth, and to the earth we shall return.

For so did you ordain when you created me saying:
 "You are dust, and to dust you shall return.
 All of us go down to the dust, yet even at the grave we make our song:
 Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia."

Antiphon

Give rest un-to your ser-vants with your saints O God, give rest, — give rest where there is nei-ther pain or — sor - row, nei-ther sigh-ing, but life ev - er - last - ing.

THE WORD OF GOD

SCRIPTURE READING

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

Will Byassee (9:15 a.m.)

Barbara Temple (11:00 a.m.)

If I speak in the tongues of humans and of angels but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ² And if I have prophetic powers and understand all mysteries and all knowledge and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give away all my possessions and if I hand over my body so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant ⁵ or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable; it keeps no record of wrongs; ⁶ it does not rejoice in wrongdoing but rejoices in the truth. ⁷ It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

⁸ Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. ⁹ For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part, ¹⁰ but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. ¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. ¹² For now we see only a reflection, as in a mirror, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. ¹³ And now faith, hope, and love remain, these three, and the greatest of these is love.

HYMN OF PREPARATION PLEASE STAND AND SING TOGETHER

"O Valiant Hearts"

O valiant hearts, who to your glory came
Through dust of conflict and through battle flame;
Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
Your memory hallowed in the land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank to war,
As who had heard God's message from afar;
All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave
To save mankind—yourself you scorned to save.

Splendid you passed, the great surrender made;
Into the light that nevermore shall fade;
Deep your contentment in that blest abode,
Who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.

O risen Lord, O Shepherd of our dead,
Whose Cross has bought them, and whose star has led,
In glorious hope their proud and sorrowing land
Commits her children to Thy gracious hand.

SERMON

"Giving Love, Giving Life"

Rev. Lorraine Diaz

THE RESPONSE

PASTORAL PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER SAY TOGETHER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM CHOIR ONLY

"In Flanders Fields"

Eleanor Daley

Chamber Choir (9:15 a.m.)

Sanctuary Choir (11:00 a.m.)

In Flanders fields the poppies blow between the crosses, row on row,
that mark our place; and in the sky the larks,
still bravely singing, fly scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago we lived, felt dawn,
saw sunset glow, loved,
and were loved, and now we lie in Flanders fields.
Take up our quarrel with the foe:
to you from failing hands we throw the torch,
be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die we shall not sleep,
though poppies grow in Flanders fields.

EAST END UNITED CHURCH HOSTING 30 ASYLUM SEEKERS

Many of you will have heard about the number of asylum seekers from African countries who have been left stranded outside 129 Peter Street. One night earlier this month, in a crisis situation and with the help of Lawrence Park Community Church and Eglinton St. George's, East End United hosted 100 asylum seekers who had temporarily been displaced from Dominion Church. The landlord for Dominion has given the congregation a November 1st deadline to get everybody out. There are also people showing up at Peter Street every single day, out in the cold, without any provisions for the coming winter months.

If you are able to provide any of the items listed below, please drop them off at 310 Danforth Avenue, Jackman entrance labelled "refugee guests". They can be left inside the doors between 9am-10pm. Alternatively, you can drop your labelled items off at the volunteer office here at the church.

Items needed include:

- Towels
- Washcloths
- Toiletries (soap, shampoo, razors, shaving cream, menstrual products)
- Underwear
- Good condition winter clothing
- Winter Coats
- Boots (good/near new condition)
- Phone charging cables (lighting, USB-C)
- USB charging bricks
- Refillable water bottles
- laptop or desktop computers capable of decently running Zoom calls
- a couple of printers (with ink or the capability of easily obtaining ink)
- Snack foods (fruit, veggies, granola bars, etc.)
- Dish towels

We are deeply grateful for your contribution.

CRIB, CROSS, NEW CREATION: A PILGRIMAGE TO WALES INFORMATION SESSION WEDNESDAY, NOV. 22 AT 7:00 PM

As many of you know, TEMC is proud to have recently amalgamated with Dewi Sant Welsh United Church. Wales has more than 1500 years of church history. But if you're like me, you're relatively unaware of that history. So, I've planned a pilgrimage to Wales, devoted to learning about Christ's work through the church in Wales, past and present. Wales inherited a unique strand of the Christian tradition called Celtic Christianity. The Celts, called the Galatians in the Bible, were a people with a vast territorial expanse north of the Roman Empire. With no written language, much of their culture is now forgotten. Much of what remains is in the form of the Celtic Church, which arrived in the British Isles well before Roman Christianity did. It is a Christian faith deeply in touch with nature, rigorous in its discipline, and beautiful in its poetry. Wales also has a rich history of evangelical renewal, including a massive revival in the early 20th century, powered by hymn singing.

We will explore all this and much more in our journey, and I hope you'll come! Dates are July 20 - August 3, 2024. I am so excited to lead you, in partnership with Dr. Iwan Russell-Jones of Cardiff (Research Professor at Regent College, Vancouver—he'll preach for us January 21!) and Pastor Bronwyn Spilsbury (Director of Pilgrim Way Ministries.) Together we've planned a journey of deep history and living hope.

Come to an information meeting in person and online, planned for Wednesday, November 22 at 7:00 PM. At that time we will share the itinerary, cost, and travel details. Please be in touch with me with any questions.

TUESDAY BIBLE STUDY

Each week Rev. Jason or Rev. Lori will lead a study on the focus passage for the coming Sunday's sermon. It's a great way to prepare for Sunday, ask questions, and dive deeper into the passage. Our fall series will focus on St. Paul.

St. Paul is one of the most important interpreters of the Christian faith. Yet he is not often read, studied, or preached from in churches like ours (and he is sometimes vilified instead!). How do we make sense of this difficult, irascible apostle? And how might our life of faith, prayer, and service deepen for having spent time in his presence?

Please join us at 1:30 pm in the Seminar Room.
