READING

"In Flanders Fields"

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

REVEILLE

Paul Sanvidotti, trumpet

NATIONAL ANTHEM SING TOGETHER

No. 524, verse 1

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
the True North, strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

PRAYER OF APPROACH PLEASE BE SEATED

MINISTRY OF MUSIC CHOIR ONLY

We invite the congregation to join us in singing this prayer after the "Alleluia"

"Kontakion"

Robertson

Choir School, Sanctuary Choir

Give rest unto your servants with your saints, O God.
Where there is neither pain nor sorrow, neither sighing, but life everlasting.
For you, God only are immortal; the creator and the maker of us all,
And we are mortal formed of the earth, and to the earth we shall return.
For so did you ordain when you created me saying:
"You are dust, and to dust you shall return."
All of us go down to the dust, yet even at the grave we make our song:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia."

Antiphon

Give rest unto your ser-vants with your saints O God. give rest, — give rest where there is nei-ther pain or — sor - row, nei-ther sigh-ing, but life ev - er - last - ing.

THE WORD OF GOD

SCRIPTURE READING

Romans 8:31-39

Alexander Crane (9:15 a.m.)

Robert Positano (11:00 a.m.)

³¹ What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? ³² He who did not withhold his own Son but gave him up for all of us, how will he not with him also give us everything else? ³³ Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who is to condemn? It is Christ who died, or rather, who was raised, who is also at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. ³⁵ Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will affliction or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or peril or sword? ³⁶ As it is written,

"For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered."

³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than victorious through him who loved us. ³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹ nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

HYMN OF PREPARATION PLEASE STAND AND SING TOGETHER

"Be Still, My Soul"

Be still, my soul! the Lord is on your side;
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In ev'ry change he faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul! your best, your heav'nly friend
Thru' thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul! your God does undertake
To guide the future as he has the past;
Your hope, your confidence, let nothing shake;
all now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul! the waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while he lived below.

Be still, my soul! when dearest friends depart
And all is darkened in the vale of tears,
Then shall you better know his love, his heart,
Who comes to soothe your sorrow and your fears.
Be still, my soul! your Jesus can repay
From his own fullness all he takes away.

Be still, my soul! the hour is hast'ning on
When we shall be forever with the Lord,
When disappointment, grief, and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still my soul! when change and tears are past,
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last.

THE RESPONSE

PASTORAL PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER SAY TOGETHER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

"There You'll Be"

*Faith Hill, arr Arndt
Sanctuary Choir*

When I think back on these times and the dreams we left behind, I'll be glad 'cause I was blessed to get to have you in my life. When I look back on these days, I look and see your face; you were right there for me. In my dreams, I'll always see you soar above the sky; in my heart, there'll always be a place for you for all my life. I'll keep a part of you with me and everywhere I am, there you'll be; and everywhere I am, there you'll be. Well, you showed me how it feels to feel the sky within my reach and I always will remember all the strength you gave to me; your love made me make it through; oh, I owe so much to you. You were right there for me, in my dreams, I'll always see you soar above the sky; in my heart, there'll always be a place for you for all my life. I'll keep a part of you with me and everywhere I am, there you'll be 'cause I always saw you in my light, my strength and I wanna thank you now for all the ways you were right there for me. You were right there for me for always in my dreams, I'll always see you soar above the sky in my heart, there'll always be a place for you for all my life; I'll keep a part of you with me and everywhere I am, there you'll be and everywhere I am, there you'll be. There you'll be.

"Where the Heart Lies:
Britten and the Songs of Home"

On November 11th, we pause to remember those whose lives were shaped or taken by war — the soldiers, civilians, and artists who bore witness to history's most turbulent moments. Benjamin Britten was one of those artists. In 1939, a year before the Blitz, Britten left England for America, fleeing both the threat of war and the constriction of his creative and personal freedoms. Yet even in exile, he turned again and again to the music of his homeland — the folk songs he grew up with, that echoed with love, loss, resilience, and memory. These arrangements offer more than music. They are songs of remembrance — not just for those who went to war, but for the land left behind, the homes disrupted, and the peace so longed for. Through these melodies, Britten reconnects with home, and we too are invited to reflect: on the cost of conflict, the ache of distance, and the quiet power of song to carry memory forward.
